My Journey to Becoming Vegan

- Destruction of biodiverse habitats
- Oceanic Dead Zones
- Overfishing
- Resource Scarcity

What I Learnt Being Vegan

- They live short lives

What I Learnt Being Vegan

- They live short lives
- They are treated inhumanely

What I Learnt Being Vegan

- They live short lives
- They are treated inhumanely
- It shouldn't matter how they are treated

At Elwood's, we pride ourselves on ensuring the highest welfare for our livestock, so our customers can rest easy knowing that they have chosen the humane option. Our dogs live happily on our pastures, and are butchered locally. They really are part of the family.

What I Learnt Being Vegan

- They live short lives
- They are treated inhumanely
- It shouldn't matter how they are treated
- We eat well, and love food
